Head of Continuing Education Dr. Gabriela Maria Payer to leave Swiss Finance Institute by end of 2017

Swiss Finance Institute (SFI) today announces that Dr. Gabriela Maria Payer, Member of the Management Board and Head of Continuing Education, will leave the institute by the end of 2017. After eight years at SFI, three of which as Chairperson of the institute's Executive Education Advisory Board and five as Head of Continuing Education, Gabriela Maria Payer has informed the SFI Foundation Board that she wishes to leave SFI in order to focus on her own business, which she launched already in 2012.

«With her longstanding commitment to our continuing education unit and its clients, her deep industry knowledge, and her clear vision of SFI Continuing Education's future, Gabriela Maria Payer has successfully steered this important part of our institution through challenging times and has helped shape SFI into what it is today. On behalf of the Foundation Board and the Management Board, I want to thank Gabriela for her great contribution to SFI throughout the past eight years,» says Prof. François Degeorge, Managing Director of SFI.
